PTA Newsletter - Christmas Fayre Special

Please remember classes will be finishing at 2.30pm to allow all children to attend - all Holywell School pupils will need to be accompanied by their responsible adult to the Fayre (alternative arrangements may be made in advance with school) and school pick-up time remains 3.15pm.

Our focus this year has been on providing the children with lots of fun stalls to enjoy - including Guess the Baby Photo, Christmas Pudding game, Santa Splash, Sweets in a Jar and Face Painting/Glitter Tattoos. The children will also be able to create some festive cards, decorations and even Reindeer Food in our Elf Workshop.

We will also have a lucky jar stall which we need your help with (again!). You've kindly donated lots of jars - more are always very welcome (up until Friday 29 November) - which will be cleaned and given back to the children (with instructions) to fill. Once full the jars should please be given back to the PTA for the stall.

In addition to this there will be stallholders selling some amazing Christmas gifts - Katherine Broad with Usbourne Books, Caroline from The White Collection, artist Roger Ford and Vicky Poulter with her handmade children's clothes/cushions.

Bric-a-Brac...

Any toys, books, DVDs or other unwanted items would be gratefully received for our Bric-a-Brac stall

Teddies Needed...
